Accident & Health International Underwriting Pty Limited, ABN 26 053 335 952, AFS licence no. 238261, is an underwriting agency specifically created to provide Personal Accident, Medical and Travel insurance. They have been in operation since March 1998 and act on behalf of CGU Insurance Limited, ABN 27 004 478 371, AFS Licence no. 238291, with full authority to quote and issue contracts of insurance, collect premiums and pay claims.

If you have any queries about this policy you should contact AHI. Their contact details are in this document.

The Insurer

The Insurer of the Policy is CGU Insurance Limited.

What is a Product Disclosure Statement

This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) contains information about the policy including the benefits and conditions, your rights as a client and other things you need to know to assist you to make an informed decision when choosing your insurance.

In this PDS:

- 'We', 'Our' or 'Us' means CGU Insurance Limited.
- 'You' means the person or company who will be named in the policy schedule as the insured.
- 'insured person' means the person nominated by you from time to time for the insurance cover selected by you and for which the premium has been paid. The insured person and the type of cover chosen will be set out on the policy schedule. For example, your employee who will work and live overseas for a certain period of time.

What The Policy Consists Of

Your policy consists of:

- this printed Expatriate Medical Expenses Insurance Policy Document which sets out details of your cover and its limitations, and
- a schedule, approved by us, which sets out who is insured, the cover(s) selected, the period of insurance, the limits of liability, excesses and other important information. This is referred to as the Schedule/Schedule of Benefits in this policy document.

You should carefully read and retain your insurance policy document and current schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us. Any new or replacement schedule we may send you, detailing changes to your insurance or the period of insurance, will become the current schedule, which you should carefully read and retain.

Our Agreement With You

We will insure you for:

- medical expenses, and
- the other benefits, as set out in this policy occurring during the period of insurance.

This cover will be given on the basis:

- that you have paid or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover you selected when you applied for cover and which the current schedule indicates is in force,
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave after having been advised of your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing. If you failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of voiding your policy from the effective date stated in the current schedule. For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure, under the heading "Your Duty of Disclosure", on page 4.

Policy Covers

The cover Sections are:

Section 1 – Medical Expenses

Section 2 – Evacuation Cover and Personal Safety (Dynamiq Assist)

You need to choose whether you are taking cover for a Single, Couple or a Family.

Age Limits

There are certain age limits that apply to this policy. There is no cover for any person over the age of sixty-five (65) years.

The Most We Will Pay

You must choose whether you want Single, Couple or Family cover and also a sum insured.

- If you choose Single cover - the maximum we will pay for a claim under the policy is the sum insured shown for that insured person as set out in the policy schedule. In some cases, there are "annual" limits on the benefits payable to the insured person. We will pay a pro rata benefit for these if your Period of Insurance is not twelve (12) months.
- If you choose Couple or Family cover – the maximum we will pay for a claim under the policy is the sum insured shown for each insured person. There are also "annual" limits per Family. We will pay a pro rata benefit for these if your Period of Insurance is not twelve (12) months.

Choosing a Sum Insured

It is important that you ensure that you have selected a sum insured for each cover that provides you and the insured person with sufficient protection for your needs.

Choosing an Excess

An excess is the amount you pay after the claimable expense has been determined. Claimable expenses are determined subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. There are two types of excess:

- an excess you pay for each claim under the policy. You can select this excess when you take out this policy, for example fifty ($50) dollars or one hundred ($100) dollars. This excess is applied to the claimable expense; or

- an annual aggregate excess. The annual excess is the amount you pay for all claims before this policy commences payments. For example, if the annual aggregate excess is five hundred ($500) dollars and your first two (2) claims equal five hundred and fifty ($550) dollars, then we will pay fifty ($50) dollars. The annual aggregate excess is applied to claimable expenses.

The type and amount of the excess will be shown on your policy schedule.

The Cost of Your Policy and Paying For Your Insurance

The cost of your policy will be shown on the quotation we give you, once we have received all required information from you. The cost of your policy is calculated based on the policy period, the country, the insured person's age, their occupation, the type of cover you choose and claims experience.

The cost of the policy is made up of premium, government taxes such as Goods & Services Tax (GST) and stamp duty, where applicable.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into the policy with us to that which applies when you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace your policy. We set these two duties out below.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into this policy with us for the first time:

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for this policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers,
- tell us everything you know, and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace your policy:

When you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace the policy your duty is to tell us before the renewal, variation, extension, reinstatement or replacement is made, every matter known to you which:

- you know, or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

What you do not need to tell us for either duty:

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk,
- that is of common knowledge,
- that we know or should know as an insurer, or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who do the above two duties apply to? Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the relevant duty. What happens if you or they do not comply with either duty? If you or they do not comply with the relevant duty, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Renewal Procedure

Before this policy expires we will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation advising the amount payable to renew this policy. It is important that you check the information shown before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that the details are correct.

Taxation Implications

Depending upon you or your company's entitlement to claim Input Tax Credits under this policy, we may reduce the payment of your claim by the amount of any Input Tax Credit.

Consult your tax accountant if you have any questions about your particular circumstances.

Making A Claim

If you need to make a claim please send a written notice of claim to AHI within thirty (30) days of the date of the expense occurring or as soon as reasonably possible. AHI will send you a copy of our claim form which will need to be fully completed. We will not be responsible for any payments under the policy unless this form is fully completed and returned. Any expenses involved in the collection of information for the form are your responsibility.

At any time after a claim has been lodged we may conduct enquiries into the circumstances of the claim. We may ask for medical examinations or, in the event of death, we may request an autopsy. This will be done at our expense.

Any payments will be made in the same currency as the premium quoted.

Once a payment is made under this policy, we may attempt to recover the amount we have paid to you if we find someone else is responsible for the loss or damage. We will do this in your or the insured person's name. We may also need to defend you, or the insured person, if someone else alleges you caused them loss or damage. You and the insured person need to co-operate with us.

Cooling-Off

If you decide that you do not want the policy, you have a cooling off period of twenty-one (21) days from the date on which the policy was issued to cancel the policy. You must tell Us in writing that you wish to cancel the policy and we will repay the full amount of premium to you. If you choose to use the cooling-off period, then we will treat the policy as never having existed.

You cannot use this cooling-off period if the policy has already expired or if there has been a claim made under the policy.

Dispute Resolution

We and AHI will do everything possible to provide a quality service to you. If you have any concern or complaint, AHI staff are always available to listen to you and to help where they can.

If, after talking to a staff member, you wish to take the matter further, AHI has a Complaints and Dispute Resolution Procedure which undertakes to provide an answer to you within fifteen (15) working days. Please contact the Disputes Resolution Manager - see contact details in this Product Disclosure Statement.

If you are not happy with any decision and it relates to a claim, you may take your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (FOS), an independent and external dispute resolution body subject to eligibility. Access to the FOS process is free of charge to you.
