Enthusiast Motor Insurance

drive less – spend less

Thank you for choosing Enthusiast.

We welcome you as a valued customer of Enthusiast Underwriting Pty Ltd (ABN 35 142 206 746) (Enthusiast).

Enthusiast provides motor insurance for vehicles (from brand new to vintage), including historic motor trucks, other historic motor vehicles and motorcycles where the insured Driver drives the Vehicle on low kilometres/miles annually. Vehicles may be driven rarely, less often or daily up to the Nominated Annual Distance Driven chosen by the insured. We do not insure vehicles that exceed 15,000 kilometres annually, unless we have agreed in writing to this.

We've designed this insurance in conjunction with underwriter and insurer Assetinsure Pty Ltd (ABN 65 006 463 803) (Assetinsure) to provide for the specific insurance needs of motor enthusiasts throughout Australia.

Your insurance contract

When you buy Enthusiast Declared Driver and Nominated Annual Distance Policy, Assetinsure enters into a contract with you. This contract is your Policy, which is made up of:

- this Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) (which contains a high-level overview of the insurance cover provided under your Policy);
- the Policy Wording (which describes the insurance cover provided under your Policy in detail); and
- your Schedule (which identifies the cover we provide under your Policy, the insured(s) covered, the coverage chosen, any Excess applicable and any conditions that may change the cover provided under your Policy).

Each of these documents is a Policy Document.

You must read the Policy Documents carefully and ensure you fully understand the terms of the insurance cover provided under your Policy, including the interests and amounts insured. If any of these things are not in accordance with your requirements or you are in doubt as to the meaning or potential impact of the Policy Documents, please contact Enthusiast, your broker or a financial advisor for assistance.

Keep your Policy Documents in a safe place, together with any receipts and other evidence of ownership and value of items insured under your Policy.

Insurance for personal, domestic or household purposes

By applying for and buying this Policy, you confirm that you are obtaining this insurance wholly or predominantly for your personal, domestic or household purposes.

General information only

The information contained in this document is general in nature. It does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation or needs. Because of this, before acting on this information, you should read the Policy Documents carefully to determine whether this Policy is right for you. If you require personal advice, we recommend you seek advice from an insurance broker or financial advisor before making the decision to purchase, vary or cancel your insurance.

Certain words and phrases have a special meaning when they appear in this document. Refer to the Glossary (which starts on page 53) for a list of the defined terms and their meaning.

Financial Services Guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) provides you with information about the financial services Enthusiast can offer you in respect of a Policy (to help you decide whether or not to use those services) as well as information about Enthusiast's relationship with Assetinsure (the insurer), how Enthusiast and others are remunerated, arrangements we have in place to compensate retail clients for loss, how you can make a complaint and how complaints are handled.

Enthusiast and its financial services

Enthusiast holds Australian financial services licence number 396 716. This licence allows Enthusiast to:

- provide general financial product advice (which means Enthusiast does not provide tailored advice that takes into account your personal objectives, financial situation or needs) on general insurance products; and
- deal in general insurance products, including by distributing and issuing the Policy on behalf of Assetinsure to retail and wholesale clients.

Enthusiast is a wholly owned subsidiary of Assetinsure and issues the Policy under a binding authority given by Assetinsure. This authority allows Enthusiast to issue the Policies as if Enthusiast was the insurer. When we do this, we act as an agent of the insurer (not you).

You will receive a Product Disclosure Statement

When Enthusiast offers or issues a Policy to you, we will give you a PDS (which is contained in this document). The PDS provides important information on the significant features of the insurance policy, including its benefits and information about how the insurance Premium is calculated.

What Enthusiast is paid

Enthusiast is paid a commission of 25% of the base Premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges and levies) you pay for the Policy.

We may also receive a profit share commission of up to 20% of the base Premium. This commission is only payable to us if certain profitability targets are met.

We may pay commission, fees or other benefits to a person who refers you to us. If this person is an insurance broker or agent, we recommend that you ask them for details of their remuneration and their FSG.

Employees of Enthusiast do not receive commissions, fees or other benefits from any party when you purchase this Policy. They are paid an annual salary or wage, which may include bonuses or other incentives. Bonuses and other incentives may be based on performance or other criteria (which may or may not be related to their provision of financial services).

Our professional indemnity insurance

Enthusiast has professional indemnity insurance, which covers Enthusiast for claims by retail clients that relate to the financial services provided by Enthusiast and its representatives, including its employees. This satisfies the compensation arrangements required under section 912B of the Corporations Act. Enthusiast is also covered for claims against former representatives while they acted on Enthusiast's behalf.

You do not have a direct right to claim under this insurance.

What to do if you have a complaint

If you have a complaint about a claim, see page 11.

If your complaint relates to Enthusiast's financial services (for example the advice we gave or how we issued the Policy), you can contact Assetinsure by:

- post to PO Box R299, Sydney NSW 1225;
- calling 02 9251 8055; or
- emailing info@assetinsure.com.au.

We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint and attempt to resolve it within 30 business days.

We are a member of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, an external dispute resolution scheme. If you are unsatisfied with the manner in which we handle your complaint about our services, you are entitled to take your complaint to them. Their contact details are on page 11. You can access their service for free and any decision they make is binding on us but not on you.

Privacy Statement

This Privacy Statement describes how we collect, use, handle and disclose your personal information. It also describes the matters to which you give your consent when applying for a Policy.

Any personal information we collect will be handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy (available at www.assetinsure.com.au) and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act). Our Privacy Policy includes information about your right to access and seek correction of the personal information we hold about you and how you may do this, how you can make a complaint about a breach of your privacy rights and how we deal with complaints.

Collection and use of your personal information

We usually collect personal information directly from you. In some circumstances, we may collect your personal information from another person or source – we usually only do this when it is unreasonable or impracticable for Assetinsure to collect it directly from you or when you would expect us to collect the information from a nominated third party. For example, when you authorise a representative (e.g. an insurance broker, financial planner, legal services provider, agent or carer providing services) to deal with us on your behalf, we will seek the information directly from them.

You agree that your personal information may be collected, held and used by us for the purpose of providing our services to you, including offering and assessing an application for a Policy and providing, managing and/or administering any Policy subsequently provided to you.

In addition, you agree that your personal information may be collected, held and used for the purposes of corresponding with you, managing any claims you make and services we provide you, executing your instructions, managing our relationship with you, complying with legislative and regulatory requirements, collecting payments, responding to your enquiries, marketing our services and understanding services you may be interested in receiving (we may do this by calling you or sending you direct mail, such as by email to your email address), for internal purposes (including risk management, underwriting and pricing, quality assurance and training purposes) and for other purposes identified at the time of collecting your information.

Consequences if information is not provided

If you do not provide us with the information we need, we will be unable to consider your application for insurance, administer your Policy or manage any claim under your Policy.

Disclosure of your personal information

You agree that we may disclose your personal information:

- to Enthusiast;
- to our external service providers and contractors (such as any mail house, commercial agent or entities engaged by us to carry out certain business activities on our behalf, such as loss assessors, claims investigators, insurance reference bureaux, underwriters and re-insurers, lead generators, data analysts, claims reference providers, hospitals, medical and health professionals and information technology service providers);
- to our related entities, assignees, agents and external advisers (such as legal and other professional advisers);
- to any other person we consider necessary to execute your instructions;
- to any financial institution to or from which a payment is made in relation to any Policy you have; or
- in accordance with any consent you give or where disclosure is authorised or compelled by law (for example, to law enforcement and regulatory, government and dispute resolution bodies).

Transfer of personal information overseas

You agree that we may disclose your information to recipients located overseas, including the USA, Canada, Bermuda, Europe (including the United Kingdom), Singapore, South Africa, Hong Kong and India.

Information about another person

If you provide information about any other person, you agree to tell them that you are providing this information to us, about our contact details in this document, the reason you are providing their information, the fact that we have collected personal information from you and about the contents of this Privacy Statement.

How you can make a complaint and how they are handled

We are committed to providing quality services to you. This commitment extends to giving you easy access to people and processes that can resolve a service issue or complaint.

If you have a complaint about how we have handled your personal information, please contact the Privacy Officer by:

- post at Assetinsure Pty Ltd, Level 21, 45 Clarence Street, Sydney NSW 2000;
- email at privacy@assetinsure.com.au; or
- phone (02) 8274 2898.

We will do our best to resolve it quickly and fairly.

If the matter cannot be resolved to your satisfaction by us, you have the right to refer the matter to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is an external dispute resolution body that provides a free and independent dispute resolution service for retail clients. AFCA can be contacted at:

Australian Financial Complaints Authority
GPO Box 3, Melbourne Victoria 3001
Tel: 1800 931 678
Email: info@afca.org.au
www.afca.org.au

A decision of AFCA is binding on us (up to specified jurisdiction limits). A decision of AFCA is not binding on you and you have the right to seek further legal assistance.

Your cooling off rights

If you buy this Policy and change your mind, you can ask us to cancel your Policy within 21 days of the date cover originally commenced. Provided that you have not made a claim and an event has not occurred that could give rise to a claim under your Policy, we will refund your Premium. We may deduct from your refund any government taxes or duties we cannot recover.

When your cooling off period ends, you retain cancellation rights (see the General Conditions for details on the refund policy).

Your duty to take reasonable care

Before you enter into any Policy with us, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) (Insurance Contracts Act).

This duty of reasonable care applies until you enter into (or vary, renew, extend or reinstate) the contract of insurance.

Your duty when you enter into a contract of insurance with us for the first time

When you answer our questions that are relevant to our decision about whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms, you must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us before entering into the insurance contract.

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the contract of insurance.

Your duty when you vary, renew, extend or reinstate the contract of insurance

When you are proposing to renew, vary, extend or reinstate your Policy with us we may ask you to answer questions that are relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

Your duty is to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us before the insurance contract is varied, renewed, extended or reinstated.

We may also give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this:

- you must tell us about any change; or
- tell us that there is no change.

If you do not tell us about a change, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

What is taken into account to determine whether you have taken reasonable care

Whether you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation will be determined with regard to all relevant circumstances, including:

- the product type and its target market;
- explanatory material or publicity produced or authorised by us;
- how clear and specific any questions we asked were and how clearly we communicated to you the importance of answering those questions and the possible consequences of failing to do so;
- whether or not an agent was acting for you;
- whether the contract was a new contract or was being renewed, extended, varied or reinstated;
- any particular characteristics or circumstances relating to you of which we are aware or ought reasonably to have been aware.

Any misrepresentation made fraudulently is a breach of your duty to take reasonable care.

Who needs to tell us?

The duty to take reasonable care applies to you and everyone that is insured under the contract of insurance.

If you do not tell us

If you, or anyone insured under your Policy, fails to comply with this duty to take reasonable care, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under your contract of insurance in respect of a claim, cancel the contract or both. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of treating your contract of insurance as if it never existed.

Applying for cover

When applying for this Policy, you must complete an application (which you can do using our automated quoting process). We will use and rely upon the information supplied by you to select the insurance cover we will provide to you. By making the application, you confirm to us that all information supplied by you is accurate and you have complied with the duty of disclosure.

Making a claim

The Claims (what you must do) section (which starts on page 48) describes what you need to do. Prior to paying any claim, we will require evidence as to the extent of loss or damage and your ownership. Please keep any photographs, other documentation or damaged property in respect of your loss or damage to make the overall process simpler.

Excesses that may apply to you

An Excess may apply to you when you make a claim with us. An Excess represents the part of a claim that you must pay and is payable for each occurrence covered by this Policy. An occurrence represents one or a series of events arising out of one cause.

If an Excess applies, we may deduct the Excess from the amount we pay you for a claim or we will ask you to pay the Excess to us when you make a claim.

The description and amount of Excess is listed in your Schedule. The amount of the Excess will depend on several risk factors associated with the type and value of the Vehicle, the age and experience of the Driver, and Modifications made to the Vehicle.

There are circumstances when we may waive the requirement for you to pay an Excess. This usually applies when you have an Accident which damages or destroys the Vehicle and we agree, acting reasonably, that the Accident was the fault of another party. To qualify for this, if the Driver of your Vehicle at the time of the Accident did not, in our opinion, acting reasonably, contribute to the cause of the Accident, then you must provide us with the name, address and/or registration of the owner, Driver or party responsible for the other vehicle involved in the Accident.

The cost of this insurance

Your Premium

In return for paying your Premium or agreeing to pay your Premium to us, we will provide the cover you have chosen.

Your Premium will be based on our view of the likelihood of a claim being made on your Policy during the Period of Insurance. When we work out the Premium, we consider a number of factors that have over time been shown to be a good determinate of the likelihood of a claim being made. Some of these factors include:

- your Vehicle make and model and its value, whether it is modified and where you keep it;
- the way you use your Vehicle, including Private Use, Business Use or Restricted Registration and the distance driven per year;
- the type of cover you have requested, including any Policy options you choose;
- the age of the insured(s) and their driving history; and
- your insurance and claims history.

Your Premium also includes amounts that take into account our actual or estimated obligation to pay compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example, stamp duty, GST and any fire services levy where it may apply) with respect to your Policy. When you apply for a Policy, we will tell you what Premium is payable, when you must pay us and how you can pay us.

When calculating your Premium, we may also consider any No Claim Bonus Rating you have had with a previous insurer (provided you can supply proof of the No Claim Bonus Rating that you held).

Other costs

Any other costs associated with your Policy are listed in the following table.

Excess

Represents the amount you may have to pay if you make a claim. If you must pay an Excess, that amount will be listed in your Schedule plus any additional Excesses that may apply as detailed in the Claims – (what we will do) section (which starts on page 50).

Contribution/depreciation

You may have to contribute to the cost of repairing items such as tyres, engines, Modifications, paintwork, bodywork, batteries or interiors affected by wear and tear or rust and corrosion. How much you will pay will depend upon on the assessment we make, acting reasonably, of how worn these items were when the damage occurred.

Reimbursement of claims cost and/or payments already made to you

If you elect to withdraw your claim or we, acting reasonably, refuse to accept it, you may have to reimburse us for any of the costs we incurred to process your claim and/or any payments we have already made to you (for example, payments for Rental Car Costs).

Additional Premium payable from a claim in the previous Period of Insurance

Should you register a claim with us that occurred in an earlier Period of Insurance after we have calculated your renewal Premium and your Policy has been renewed, we will recalculate the Premium amount that should have applied at renewal. When this happens, you must pay us any additional Premium we require, taking into consideration your revised claims history and/or any change to your No Claim Bonus Rating. The additional Premium will not exceed the Premium we would have charged had you submitted your claim earlier.

No Claim Bonus

No Claim Bonus discount

We reward our customers who have a good claims history with our No Claim Bonus benefit. The bonus is a discount which we apply to your base Premium. Your base Premium is the amount we charge before we add Premium for optional extras, taxes and government charges. When you buy a Policy we ask you to tell us about any No Claim Bonus you had before you were insured with us. We will ask you to provide us evidence of your No Claim Bonus entitlement from your current or previous insurer's schedule of insurance.

The No Claim Bonus Rating levels we have are:

Rating 1: 5 years claim free also known as Rating 1 60%-65%

Rating 2: 4 years claim free 50% also known as Rating 1 50%-55%

Rating 3: 3 years claim free, 40% also known as Rating 1 40%-45%

Rating 4: 2 years claim free 30% also known as Rating 1 30%-35%

Rating 5: 1 year claim free 20% also known as Rating 1 20%-25%

If you cannot provide us with documented evidence of your claimed No Claim Bonus Rating, we will treat you as Rating 5.

What happens to your No Claim Bonus discount when you renew your Policy

Your No Claim Bonus discount will increase by 10% for each year you don't make an at-fault claim, until you reach our highest bonus discount of 60%.

On renewal, your no claim bonus discount will fall if you've made an at-fault claim under your Policy. If you have purchased No Claim Bonus Rating One protection and you make one at-fault claim under the Policy, No Claim Bonus Rating One protection will reduce the impact that an at-fault claim has on your rating.

We set out below the types of claims that affect your No Claim Bonus discount and how much it can fall.

No Claim Bonus Rating One protection

You can apply for the No Claim Bonus Rating One protection if you have a No Claim Bonus Rating of 1. If you buy 'No claim bonus Rating One protection optional benefit', your No Claim Bonus Rating won't be reduced if you make one at-fault claim during the Period of Insurance.

At-fault claims: Claims that affect your No Claim Bonus

There are three types of at-fault claims which affect your No Claim Bonus discount, being:

- at-fault, where you or another listed Driver of your Vehicle, were fully or partly at fault;
- not recoverable, where someone else was at fault, but you weren't able to provide us with their name, address and/or registration details; and
- claims where damage was caused by an animal, weather, fire, theft, attempted theft or malicious damage.

Type of claim	Effect on No Claim Bonus	Effect on No Claim Bonus if you purchased No Claim Bonus Rating One protection
Not at fault	No movement	No movement
One at-fault claim	Reduce by 10%	No movement
Two at-fault claims	Reduce by up to 20%	Reduce by up to 10%
Three at-fault claims	Reduce by up to 30%	Reduce by up to 20%

We confirm transactions

If the repairs to your Vehicle put it in a better condition than it was prior to the loss, we may also require you to contribute to the cost of the repairs.

We will not guarantee repairs not authorised by us.

We will pay the amount which you may be held legally liable to pay as compensation in respect of death or bodily injury arising out of the use of your Vehicle by a listed Driver in your Schedule and declared for that Vehicle, provided that your Vehicle is registered for use on a public road when such liability is incurred.

Your Policy is extended to cover the legal liability even if you are using a substitute vehicle, but only if your own insured Vehicle was in an unusable condition and only one substitute vehicle can be used at a time and the substitute vehicle is not otherwise insured. This extension does not include cover for any damage to the substitute vehicle itself, but only damage caused to other people's property when you are driving that vehicle.

These modified Vehicles must also comply with the applicable in-service requirements of the AVSR, or any of the general safety provisions. Compliance with the AVSR also means compliance with the equivalent regulations of a State or Territory of Australia.

We will not pay any claim for the theft or attempted theft of your Vehicle when any Immobiliser, or other anti-theft system or Security Device fitted to your Vehicle:

- is not maintained in efficient working order; or

If you do not comply with these conditions, we may, acting reasonably, refuse to pay your claim in full or in part.

We will only cover you if you comply with these general conditions as far as they apply to you, and you are not excluded from cover by application of the general exclusions. Other terms, conditions and exclusions may specifically apply to your Policy, and we will tell you and list them on your Schedule if they do.

Nominated Annual Distance Driven

Where you have selected and nominated a limit on the annual kilometres that you drive, we have provided you with a discounted Premium to match the distance driven by your Vehicle.

By nominating the annual distance driven you have agreed to drive your Vehicle no more than the agreed kilometre limit.

This is the maximum distance you expect to drive during the Period of Insurance and it will be listed in your Schedule for each insured Vehicle.

You must:

- provide an accurate odometer reading at the commencement of your Policy for each insured Vehicle and, if we ask, when we vary your Policy, when you renew it, or if you lodge a claim;
- ensure you nominate an adequate kilometre limit for your Period of Insurance for each insured Vehicle; and
- regularly check your odometer to ensure your kilometre limit has not been exceeded on each insured Vehicle.

Please contact us if you want to increase your kilometre limit at any time during the Period of Insurance. We may charge an additional Premium for any increase in kilometre limit.

We will not refund Premium for any “unused” kilometres during the Period of Insurance and we will only reduce your Nominated Annual Distance Driven at renewal. “Unused” kilometres can also not be transferred to other Vehicles if you have listed multiple Vehicles in one Schedule.

We reserve the right to check the odometer reading you provide by:

- inspecting your Vehicle;
- asking you to take your Vehicle to an agent that we choose, acting reasonably; and
- asking you for documents such as photographs, your Vehicle's service records or your registration inspection certificate.

We will not pay any claim where your Vehicle's odometer:

- has been tampered with, replaced or manipulated to alter the odometer reading;
- is not working and you have not had it repaired; or
- has a reading that is less than the start odometer reading listed in your Schedule, unless you have notified us and explained why and we have agreed in writing to the explanation provided.

If you have exceeded the Nominated Annual Distance Driven at the time a claim occurs we will charge you an additional Excess. The additional Excess payable will be listed in your Schedule.

Renewal

We will advise you in writing before expiry of the Policy whether we will offer you renewal and on what terms. Any renewal notice will indicate the Premium payable for the new contract and any proposed alteration to the contract. Before the Policy is renewed, it is your duty, by law, to disclose to us any matter which has altered the risk we insure. We may require an additional Premium if you make a claim in the short period between the time we calculate the renewal Premium and the expiry of your Policy.

Reasonable protection and maintenance

You must take all reasonable steps to protect your Vehicle from loss and damage and comply with all legal requirements regarding the safety, maintenance and operation of your Vehicle.

Towing

If you are towing your Vehicle for any reason, and you are not employing a specialist towing company, you must:

- take all reasonable precautions when transporting your Vehicle by securing it in a manner that meets the relevant Australian Standard; and
- ensure that the towing motor vehicle meets the requirements of the State or Territory registration towing limits for the trailer whilst having your Vehicle securely attached to it.

Dangerous goods

If any hazardous goods or substances are carried in your Vehicle, you must comply with all relevant laws, by-laws and/or statutory regulations.

Should non-compliance with this condition prejudice our interests, the amount of any benefit under the Policy will be reduced by the amount that represents the extent to which our interests have been prejudiced by that non-compliance.

Learner Drivers

Cover for learner Drivers is only available where you have Comprehensive Cover, only applies to motor vehicles and specifically excludes motorcycles.

Any person driving your Vehicle on a learner permit must be accepted by us and listed in your Schedule and declared to that particular Vehicle for cover to apply. The listed learner Driver will only be covered whilst operating the declared Vehicle under instruction from an experienced, fully licensed Driver listed in your Schedule and declared to that particular Vehicle. Cover will be subject to the terms of this document.

A learner Driver Excess will apply when you list the learner Driver.

Restricted registration

If we have accepted your Vehicle based on it being granted club, historic or other designated special limited use registration status by a relevant statutory body, we will show this status in your Schedule as restricted registration. You must only drive your Vehicle in accordance with the special registration or permit requirements or we will not pay a claim.

Notice of changed circumstances

You must give us notice as soon as possible:

- of any change in or addition to the person or persons who will drive your Vehicle(s);
- where any driver or motorcycle rider licence is restricted, suspended, cancelled or special terms or conditions imposed;
- of particulars of any motor Accidents involving you or any person listed as a Driver in your Schedule;
- of particulars of any criminal offences for which you or any person listed as a Driver in your Schedule is charged or convicted of;
- of particulars of any conversion, alteration or Modification of your Vehicle from its maker's specifications. You must pay us any additional Premium if required;
- of any change in garaging or how your Vehicle is regularly kept overnight; or
- if any Immobiliser or security system ceases to be in good working order.

Changing your Policy

If you want to make a change to your Policy, the change becomes effective from:

- when we tell you we have agreed to it;
- when we give you a new Schedule detailing the change; or
- the date detailed in the new Schedule we give to you.

Notices and communications with you

Our communications with you about this Policy are entirely digital. By asking us to provide financial services to you (including by applying for a Policy), you agree to receive communications in digital form only (such as by email).

Any communication we send to you will be deemed to have been received at the time transmission is completed, except where the communication is sent out of normal business hours or on a day other than a business day, in which case the communication is deemed to have been given on the next business day.

It is important for you to tell us of any change of your contact details as soon as possible.

Cancellation by you

You may cancel your Policy at any time by telling us in writing you want to cancel it. Where more than one person is insured under your Policy, we will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all insured persons. Cancellation by you will be effective when we receive your request and all cover will then cease.

Cancellation by us

We may, acting reasonably, cancel your Policy, by giving you written notice, in accordance with the law, including where you have:

- made a misrepresentation to us before the Policy was entered into;
- failed to comply with your duty of disclosure;
- failed to comply with a provision of your Policy including failure to pay the Premium;
- made a fraudulent claim under your Policy or any other policy during the time your Policy has been in effect;
- failed to notify us of a specific act or omission as required by your Policy; or
- failed to tell us about any changes in the circumstances of the risk during the Period of Insurance.

If we cancel your Policy, we will advise you in writing and all cover will cease at the earlier of the following times:

- when another contract of insurance is taken out by you to replace your Policy; or
- at 4.00pm Local Standard Time of the third business day after the day on which notice was given to you or such later time as we may specify in the notice.

Return Premium after cancellation

After cancellation and subject to your cooling off period rights (see the Your cooling off rights section in the PDS (which is on page 11), we will refund the unexpired portion of your Premium (excluding GST and government charges) within 15 Business Days.

However, if we pay your claim for a Total Loss, then your cover under your Policy ends and we are entitled to keep the full annual Premium for this Vehicle or deduct any Premium owing from the claim payment.

Transfer of interest in Policy

No interest in your Policy can be transferred without our written permission.

Obligations of third parties covered

Any other person entitled to cover under your Policy is bound by the terms of your Policy.

Law and jurisdiction

This insurance is subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia and the Australian State or Territory in which your Policy was issued, and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that Australian State or Territory.

GST & taxation

GST refers to the goods and services tax which is the subject of A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

The Premium on this Policy includes an amount for GST and if we pay a claim your GST status may determine the amount to be paid on the claim.

You must advise us if you are registered, or required to be registered, for GST purposes, and you must, when requested, tell us what your entitlement to input tax credits (ITCs) is for your insurance Premium.

When determining the amount to be paid for a claim under this Policy, any payment or supply we make to you for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply (or monetary compensation in lieu thereof) or otherwise for your claim will be calculated on the GST inclusive cost of your claim. In calculating such payment, we are entitled to reduce it by any ITC to which you are, or would be, entitled:

- for the acquisition of such goods, services or other supply; or
- if the payment had been used to acquire such goods, services or other supply.

However, the total of all payments we make will not exceed the Agreed Value, limit or sub limit of liability, or other monetary limitation imposed or created by the Policy.

The Agreed Value, limits and/or sub limits of liability, or any other monetary limitations, are inclusive of any taxes, levies, duties or charges that the payment would be affected by or subject to.

If you make a claim and we are obliged by law to withhold any amount from the payment in order to satisfy that law (for example, because you have not provided your ABN where required to do so), the amount withheld will be treated as forming part of the claim payment paid under this Policy (even though you have not received the withheld amount).

How you can pay your Premium

You can pay your Premium either annually in one amount using cheque, EFT, credit card, BPAY or in monthly instalments by debit or credit card.

Credit card instalment payments

When you provide us with debit/credit card details to debit your instalment, you must ensure that you have the authority to use the nominated account. You are responsible for ensuring that your monthly instalment Premiums are paid. We will inform you if your monthly instalment Premium is unpaid. If any monthly instalment Premium remains unpaid for more than 30 days, we will cancel your Policy. If you change your debit/credit details you must contact us and provide new card details. Please call us if you are ever unsure about your monthly instalment Premium payments.

Unpaid Premium

If you have chosen to pay your Premium annually, your Policy will not operate until you have paid your Premium.

If you have chosen to pay your Premium by instalments and your instalment is not paid, we will not accept your claim if your instalment is 7 days overdue and we may cancel the Policy if your instalment is more than 1 month in arrears.

In the event of a Total Loss, any balance of the annual Premium will become due before settlement of the claims. Alternatively, it may be deducted from the settlement of your claim.

Claims (what you must do)

You have the following responsibilities if you have an Accident or make a claim under a Policy.

Do not admit liability

You must not pay or promise to pay or offer payment or admit responsibility for a claim.

Prevent further damage

You must take all reasonable steps to stop any further loss from occurring.

Contact tracking security

If your Vehicle is fitted with a remote tracking security system and is stolen, you must immediately contact the relevant vehicle tracking bureau.

Inform us as soon as possible

You must advise our office by telephone or in writing as soon as practicable after you suffer a loss and arrange to complete our claim form, which we will send to you, you can download from our website or may also be obtainable from your repairer. If you do not make a claim within a reasonable time after the loss, we may, acting reasonably, reduce what we pay to you to allow for any disadvantage we may have suffered because of the delay.

Obtain a quote from your choice of repairer

You have choice of licensed repairer and must obtain a written quotation from them. Your completed claim form should be left with your repairer. They should then contact us to arrange for an inspection by our assessor.

Authorising repairs

Make the Vehicle available for inspection

You must make your Vehicle available for our inspection at your choice of repairer. We reserve the right to, acting reasonably, invite, accept, adjust or decline estimates or to arrange, at our expense, for the removal of your Vehicle to other repairers for quotation purposes.

Demands from other parties

If you receive notice holding you responsible for damage to others' property, you should send us full details in writing along with any communication from the other parties, their insurer, their solicitor or any court document received.

Keep salvaged items

You must keep the property that has been damaged so we can inspect it.

Other insurance

You must notify us of any other insurance that also provides cover, whether in whole or in part.

Entitlement to input tax credits

You must tell us of any entitlement to input tax credits if you are, or should be, registered for GST purposes.

Co-operate and assist us

You must co-operate and assist us and provide us with all the information that we require acting reasonably, including but not limited to valuations, odometer readings, receipts, proof of ownership, driving history printouts and statutory declarations, if requested.

Claims (what we will do)

We have the following responsibilities if you have an Accident or make a claim under this Policy.

Excess

We will reduce the amount we pay you following a covered loss by the Excess.

However, if you have an Accident which damages or destroys your Vehicle, and you can satisfy us that the Accident was the fault of another party, and you can give us the name and address of the owner and Driver or party responsible and the registration of the other vehicle involved in the Accident, then you will not have to pay the Excess.

Standard Excess

The standard Excess applies to all claims made under this Policy and is listed in your Schedule. The standard Excess of each item shall apply cumulatively to each item insured under this Policy, if damaged in the same Accident.

Kilometre Excess

Kilometre Excess applies when, at the time of the Accident, the actual kilometres driven since the commencement of the Policy period exceed the Nominated Annual Distance Driven. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess and will be listed in your Schedule. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $2,000.

Driver age Excess

Driver age Excess applies when a Driver, at the time of an Accident, is under the age of 25, listed in your Schedule and declared for the Vehicle involved in the Accident and we have agreed to pay the claim.

This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless higher amounts are listed in your Schedule, the following age Excesses will apply:

- under 21 years of age – $1,000; and
- aged 21 to 24 years of age – $500.

Driver inexperience Excess

Applies when a Driver who is, at the time of an Accident, listed in your Schedule and declared for the Vehicle involved in the Accident, has held an Australian or New Zealand driver or motorcycle rider licence (whichever is applicable and excluding a Learner Permit) for less than 3 years. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $500.

Learner Driver Excess

Learner Driver Excess applies when a learner Driver is driving the Vehicle at the time of the Accident, and is listed in your Schedule and declared to that particular Vehicle and accompanied by a listed Driver in the Schedule for the particular Vehicle. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $500.

Special imposed Excess

Special imposed Excess applies because of certain specified risk features of this insurance. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess for the risk features specified under this heading in your Schedule.

Custom paint Excess

Custom paint Excess applies if your Schedule states that your Vehicle has been modified with custom paint or airbrush artwork. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $2,000.

4-wheel drive Excess

4-wheel drive Excess applies when your Vehicle is a 4-wheel drive vehicle and has suffered Accidental loss or damage whilst being operated within any area other than a gazetted road. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $1,000.

Test Driver Excess

Test Driver Excess applies when the Vehicle listed in the Schedule, is for sale and is driven for the purpose of trying/testing the Vehicle prior to purchase by a test Driver who is an unlisted Driver, not declared to that particular Vehicle, but is accompanied by a listed Driver who is declared to that particular Vehicle.

Where the Vehicle is being driven by the test Driver at the time of the Accident, the test Driver Excess applies. This Excess is additional to the standard Excess. Unless a higher amount is listed in your Schedule, this Excess is $500. Cover will be subject to the terms of this document.

No Claim Bonus Rating

Your No Claims Bonus Rating is not affected if:

- you have No Claims Bonus Rating One protection and make one at-fault claim during the Period of Insurance; or
- the Driver of your Vehicle at the time of the Accident did not, in our opinion, contribute to the cause of the Accident, however, you must give us the name and address of the owner and Driver or party responsible and the registration of the other vehicle involved in the Accident.

Deciding who is at fault

We will, acting reasonably, decide whether you or the Driver acting with your consent contributed to the cause of an Accident.

Choice of repairer

Should a dispute arise as to the cause of damage or the means of repair being quoted between Enthusiast and the nominated repairer, we reserve the right to, acting reasonably, settle the matter by cash payment to you. If, on or after 01 January 2022, we offer to settle all or part of a claim by cash payment to you, we will give you a Cash Settlement Fact Sheet.

Vehicle salvage

If your Vehicle becomes a Total Loss and is insured under Comprehensive Cover, the wreck of your Vehicle will, at our option, become our property and we will keep the proceeds of any salvage sale. This does not apply if you are entitled to salvage rights, and your Vehicle was not stolen.

Unavailable spare parts

If any part is not available in Australia 90 days after the date your damaged Vehicle is assessed by us, we may immediately, acting reasonably, settle your claim. We will pay for the cost to otherwise repair your Vehicle, plus the Reasonable Parts Cost for the unavailable parts.

Other insurance

You must notify us in writing if you have already effected, or if in the future you effect, any insurance(s) which covers any matter covered by your Policy, in whole or in part. To the extent permitted by law, when other insurance applies to a covered loss, we will pay only in excess of the other insurance, limited to the indemnity being provided under your Policy, unless that other insurance was specifically written to be excess over the indemnity provided in your Policy.

Our right of recovery

We have the right to, acting reasonably, exercise your legal rights to conduct, defend or settle any legal or recovery action that we consider necessary and to do so in your name. If we recover more than the amount we have paid to you or on your behalf, we will pay you the balance.
