Understanding Your Policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand the Policy's significant features, benefits and risks You need to carefully read:

- about each of the available types of cover and benefits in the relevant Sections One to Ten (the cover provided under each Section can be affected by the following);
- the rest of this "Introduction" section – this sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You;
- the duty You need to meet before We insure You, Our privacy information and Our dispute resolution procedures;
- the "General definitions" section – this sets out what We mean by certain words used in the Policy. These words begin with a capital letter throughout this document;
- the "General exclusions applicable to all Sections of this Policy" section – this sets out the general exclusions and limits that apply to all covers and benefits;
- the "General conditions applicable to all Sections of this Policy" section – this sets out certain general rights and obligations that You and We have. If You do not meet them We may be able to reduce or refuse to pay a claim to the extent We are prejudiced by Your noncompliance;

- Your Schedule and any endorsements or other written changes to the cover We issue You with before You enter into the Policy or where required or permitted by law – these contain specific details relevant to You and can affect the cover.

Applying for cover

We rely on the information in the application completed by You or on Your behalf to decide whether to offer insurance and the terms on which We provide cover.

When You apply for the Policy, We or Our representative will confirm with You:

- the covers You require (including the property You wish to cover, the limits You require for certain covers (if optional), whether any third parties will be noted as having an interest, and the Excesses that You must contribute for certain claims) – We only cover You for those Policy Sections and optional benefits shown as covered on Your Schedule up to the relevant specified limits;
- the maximum amount We pay under this Policy in respect of any one Claim and in the aggregate in respect of all Claims will not exceed either the Sum Insured or the Limit of Liability shown as insured on Your Schedule;
- different limits may apply to each Section and will also depend on Your choice of covers, options or endorsements. You should refer to Your Schedule which will show each limit for the cover under Your Policy;

- the Policy sets out the cover We provide. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for You and will cover Your potential loss. If they are not, You may be underinsured and have to bear part of any loss Yourself;
- You should also read the GST Notice in the “General conditions applicable to all Sections of this Policy” section to understand how GST is applied to a claim;
- whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement);
- the Period of Insurance;
- Your premium – the base premium We charge varies according to Your risk profile (e.g. location of risk, the type of property being insured, the cover required, other persons being insured and Your claims history etc).

You will also have to pay any compulsory government charges (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) and Fire Services Levy (where applicable). In some cases a service fee will apply where You select to pay Your premium by instalments.

We tell You the total amount payable when You apply and when and how it can be paid. This is confirmed in Your Schedule We issue You with.

If You pay Your premium by instalments, refer to the “General conditions applicable to all Sections of this Policy” section for important details on Your and Our rights and obligations.

The above details are recorded in Your Schedule We issue to You after cover is entered into.

How We calculate Your premium

The amount of Your premium is determined by taking a number of different matters into account. You can seek a quote at any time.

It is important for You to know in particular that the premium varies depending on the information We receive from You about the risk to be covered by Us.

The higher the risk is (e.g. high claims experience), the higher the premium will be. Based on Our experience and expertise as an insurer, We decide what factors increase Our risk and how they should impact on the premium.

We calculate Your premium on the basis of information that We receive from You when You apply for insurance.

Some factors impacting premiums include:

- Your nominated Sum Insured;
- where Your Farming Business is situated;
- the materials used in the construction of Your Building(s);
- the nature of Your Farming Business;
- security measures used for Your Property Insured (e.g. alarms); and
- any additional Excess You nominate to pay above Our basic Excess. This means that when You purchase a Policy You may elect to take a higher Excess in the event of a claim, which will reduce the cost of Your premium. If You are interested in this, You should ask Your intermediary or Us to supply You with quotes based on differing amounts of Excesses.

Your premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. Stamp Duty, GST, Emergency and Fire Services Levy) in relation to Your Policy. These amounts will be set out separately on Your Schedule of insurance as part of the total premium payable.

In cases where We are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. for Fire Services Levies) based on criteria set by the Government, We allocate to the Policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may over or under recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

Minimum premiums may apply. In some cases, discounts may apply if You meet certain criteria We set.

Any discounts/entitlements only apply to the extent any minimum premium is not reached. If You are eligible for more than one, We also apply each of them in a predetermined order to the premium (excluding taxes and government charges) as reduced by any prior applied discounts/entitlements. Any discounts will be applied to the base premium calculated prior to any taxes being added.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Schedule, which will be sent to You after the entry into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy in accordance with the process set out in the “Cancellation rights under the Policy” section. Special rights and obligations apply to instalment premium payments as set out below.

Instalment premiums

If You pay Your premium by instalments refer to the “General conditions applicable to all Sections of this Policy” section for important details on Your and Our rights and obligations. In some cases a service fee will apply where You select to pay Your premium by instalments. We tell You the total amount payable when You apply and when and how it can be paid. This is confirmed in the Schedule We issue to You.

Your cooling off rights

A 14 day cooling off period applies to this insurance. So, if You decide You don't want this policy, You can cancel it up to 14 days from:

- the date We issue a new policy to You, or

We'll refund Your premium in full, as long as You:

- haven't made a claim, or
- don't need to make a claim.

We may deduct government taxes or duties from Your refund.

We agree to insure You:

Other documents may form part of the PDS and the Policy. If they do, We will tell You at or prior to commencement of the Policy and in the relevant document.

Your Duty

Depending on the use of the farm that You wish to insure, a different duty to disclose information to Us before You enter into the Policy applies. The ANZSIC reference listed in Your Policy schedule specifies the type of property use.

If Your ANZSIC code is 01221 Hobby Farm then the duty that applies to You is known as the Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. Otherwise, the Duty of disclosure will apply to You.

Each of these duties is specified below. If You do not comply, We may reduce or refuse a claim and/or cancel Your Policy or if You are fraudulent, We may avoid it from inception.

If any question or guidance provided is not clear or You are not sure which duty applies to You, You can contact Your insurance intermediary or Us.

Your Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. This responsibility applies until We issue You with a Policy for the first time or agree to renew, extend, vary/change, or reinstate Your Policy.

You must answer Our questions honestly, accurately and to the best of Your knowledge. A misrepresentation includes a statement that is false, partially false, or which does not fairly reflect the truth. It is not misrepresentation if You do not answer a question or if Your answer is obviously incomplete or irrelevant to the question asked.

The responsibility to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies to everyone who will be insured under the Policy. If You are answering questions on behalf of anyone, We will treat Your answers or representations as theirs.

Whether or not You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined having regard to all relevant circumstances, including the type of insurance, who it is intended to be sold to, whether You are represented by a broker, Your particular characteristics and circumstances We are aware of.

If You do not meet the above Duty, We may reject or not fully pay Your claim and/or cancel Your Policy. If the misrepresentation was deliberate or reckless, this is an act of fraud, and We may treat Your Policy as if it never existed.

Your Duty of disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of insurance with Us, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

This Duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, extended, varied or reinstated as applicable).

Your Duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with Your Duty is waived by Us.

Non-disclosure

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of disclosure, We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract, or both.

If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

We recognise that You may find Yourself in difficult circumstances, particularly when a claim event occurs. The Code of Practice provides the following examples that may contribute to someone needing customer care:

- age
- disability

- language barriers
- literacy barriers
- cultural background
- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander status
- remote location; or
- financial distress

More information about the customer care We can offer and how We support You is available on Our website.

We have determined that the Policy (or part of it) is a Policy to which the Terrorism and Cyclone Insurance Act 2003 (Cth) ("Act") may apply. We may elect to reinsure part or all of Our liability under the Act with the Commonwealth Government reinsurer, the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation (ARPC).

As a consequence, We may be required to pay a premium to ARPC and that amount (together with the cost of that part of the cover provided by Us and administrative costs associated with the Act) is reflected in the Premium charged to You. - b) You do not pay the premium required for reinstatement;
- c) We have paid the full Sum Insured or Limit of Liability; or

10. GST Notice

This Policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and Our payment to You for claims. It may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and Your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this Policy may be adjusted for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay You, We will consider the following:

- a) Where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the Policy) We will pay for the GST amount.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the Sum Insured/Limit of Indemnity or other limits shown in the Policy or in the current Schedule (unless We state GST is included in Sum Insured or Limit of Indemnity).

If Your Sum Insured/Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which You are or would be entitled.

- b) Where We make a payment under this Policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that You would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

Disclosure – Input Tax Credit Entitlement

If You register, or are registered, for GST You are required to tell Us Your entitlement to an input tax credit on Your premium. If You fail to disclose or understate Your entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim We may pay. This Policy does not cover You for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which You may be liable.

11. Interests of other parties

- a) The insurable interest of only those lessors, financiers, trustees, mortgagees, owners and all other parties having a legal interest or charge over the Property Insured and who are specifically noted in Your records shall be automatically included as third party beneficiaries without notification or specification. The nature and extent of such interest is to be disclosed to Us in the event of damage. Any other persons not in this category or not named on Your Schedule are not covered and cannot make a claim. All third party beneficiaries must comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy.
- b) Where the protection provided by this Policy covers the interest of more than one party, any act or omission of an individual party will not prejudice the rights of the remaining parties, subject to:
- (i) the general exclusion 1(f) Wilful Acts; and
 - (ii) provided the remaining parties must, as soon as reasonably possible after becoming aware of any act or omission that increases the risk of loss, damage or liability, give notice in writing to Us and pay such reasonable additional premium as We may require in order to maintain cover that We may agree to provide for the increased risk as a result of the act or omission.

12. Excesses

An Excess is the amount shown in the appropriate Section of Your Schedule which You must pay towards the cost of a claim if You make a Claim under Your Policy unless We state otherwise in any Section and/or part of Your Policy.

If a claim arises from a single event and You can obtain cover under more than one Section, You will only be required to pay the highest single Excess applicable regardless of the number of Excesses which may apply under the individual Sections.

Sums Insured, limits and sub-limits of liability shall apply in addition to, and shall not be reduced by, the amount of any applicable Excess.

Example

An example of where this would apply is:

Sub-limit	$20,000
Excess	$ 2,000
Loss	$25,000

Claim Calculation

Loss	$25,000
Less Excess	$ 2,000
Balance	$23,000
Apply Sub Limit	$20,000
Amount payable under Policy	$20,000

An Excess of $2,000 applies to any claim for loss or damage caused by fire or explosion arising from the malicious act of:

- Your tenants; or
- the invitees of You or Your tenants.

In the event that the $2,000 Excess applies the Policy Excess shown in Your Schedule will not apply.

13. Governing law

Your Policy is governed by the laws of the Australian State or Territory where the Situation listed on Your Policy Schedule is located.

14. Headings

Headings are included for reference purposes only and do not form part of the Policy for interpretation.

15. Claims preparation expenses

We will pay for costs necessarily and reasonably incurred for the preparation and negotiation of a Claim for which We agree to indemnify You under the Policy. The maximum We will pay is $10,000 in total for any one Claim, unless a higher amount is included in the particular cover Section of the Policy. This benefit is in addition to the Sum Insured or Limit of Liability.

This benefit does not apply to Section One – Home Property.
